International Employment Lawyer is delighted to announce the second edition of the Latin American Employment Summit. The full-day event will bring together senior in-house and private practice lawyers to explore the challenges and opportunities facing multinational employers and their counsel across the region.

Registration is free for in-house counsel, HR and ER professionals. Register now to secure your place.

FEATURED SPEAKER:

FERNANDA MUNIZ BORGES

Partner, FAS Advogados
in cooperation with CMS

PANEL:

NEW FRONTIERS FOR ORGANISED LABOUR

Latin America is witnessing dynamic shifts in the trade union movement, characterised by the emergence of organised gig and app workers and the evolving impact of international trade agreements on labour organisations. This session explores these trends, the strategies employed by unions to adapt to a changing world, and their implications for employers.
